Information that we hold

We can only keep and use information for specific reasons set out in the law. If we want to keep and use information about your health, we can only do so in particular circumstances. Below, we describe the information we hold and why, and the lawful basis for collecting and using it.

What is the Lawful Basis for processing Personal Data?

"Process" means we obtain, store, update and archive your Information.

Patients' Personal Information is held for the purpose of providing patients with appropriate, high quality, safe and effective dental care and treatment and the maintenance of accurate records.

The Law says we must tell you this:

We hold patients' data because it is in our Legitimate Interest to do so. Without holding the data, we cannot work effectively. (Also, we must hold data on NHS care and treatment as it is a Public Task required by law).

We hold personal information about you including your name, date of birth, NHS number, occupation, address, telephone number and email address. Family details including anyone who may need to give consent for your care.

We will also hold contact details on whom to contact in the event of an emergency (this information is held securely and would only be required for this purpose).

Dental records

We hold information about your dental and general health, including:

- Clinical records made by dentists and other dental professionals involved with your care and treatment
- X-rays, clinical photographs, digital scans of your mouth and teeth, and study models
- Medical and dental histories
- Treatment plans and consent
- Notes of conversations with you about your care
- Dates of your appointments including any that are cancelled or that you have not attended.
- Details of any complaints you have made and how these complaints were dealt with
- Correspondence with you and other health professionals or institutions.

We collect and use this information to allow us to fulfil our contract with you, to discuss your treatment options and provide dental care that meets your needs. We also use this information for the legitimate interest of ensuring the quality of the treatment we provide.

Financial information

We hold information about the fees we have charged, the amounts you have paid and any other payment details and financial information in connection with your care. This information forms part of our contractual obligation to you to provide dental care and allows us to meet legal financial requirements.

Where your dental care is provided under the terms of the NHS, we are required to complete statutory forms to allow payments to be processed. This is an NHS requirement.

How we use your information

To provide you with the dental care and treatment that you need, we require up-to-date and accurate information about you.

We will share your information with the NHS and/or HIW, your named private dental plan provider or dental insurance provider in connection with your dental treatment.

We will seek your preference for how we contact you about your dental care. Our usual methods are telephone, email or letter.

If we wish to use your information for dental research or dental education, we will discuss this with you and seek your consent. Depending on the purpose and if possible, we will anonymise your information. If this is not possible we will inform you and discuss your options.

We may use your contact details to inform you of products and services available at the clinic.

We have CCTV at the clinic for the purposes of security and safety of our patients and staff. Please see our CCTV policy for further details (available on request).
